

do NOT call

A reminder from Senator Jake Corman: Re-register today for the Do Not Call List

Consumers who signed up for the state's Do Not Call List in 2002 must re-register now.

Pennsylvania's Do Not Call List has been one of the most successful consumer protection measures in our state's history. More than 3.5 million phone numbers have been removed from telemarketer call lists.

However, registration for the program is only valid for five years, so many consumers will no longer be included on the state's Do Not Call List unless they re-register their number now. If you signed up for the Do Not Call List in 2002, you should re-register as soon as possible to prevent future telemarketing calls.

How to Sign Up or Renew Registration

There are two ways to register or renew your registration for the Do Not Call List:

- Visit www.NoCallsPlease.com and sign up; or
- Call toll-free 1-888-777-3406.

Information on the program is also available by contacting my offices listed below or at my website: www.jakecorman.com.

How to Report Violations

To file a complaint against a telemarketer who violates the Do Not Call Law, please contact the Pennsylvania Attorney General's Bureau of Consumer Protection by calling toll-free 1-800-441-2555 or filling out a complaint form online at www.attorneygeneral.gov.

Every telemarketer receives the Do Not Call List on a quarterly basis, and telemarketers must take those numbers off their calling lists within 30 days.

Telemarketers who violate the Do Not Call Law face fines of up to $1,000 per offense, or $3,000 if the person contacted is age 60 or older.
